_
	Α	В
1		Timeline for family of JHL Botefuhr
2		Beerman Family, &
3		2nd wife daughter of Ora Carpenter
4		·
5	_	(Menorcan Descendant)
	date	Note Control of the C
	2/7/1824 1824	born D. Sarah Beerman to John Beerman & Lucy Gilman
1 1	April 1st	born-John Henry Lion Botefuhr-to John Juergen
	1837-1848 joined
9	Navy?	Shipped out as seaman-WPA states easily shipped as seaman before the mast
		Amoy, China (Xiamen re-opened to outside when it was established as one of Treaty Ports open to 10	1842	foreign tradesmen. At that time most of the tea that left China was shipped out of Xiamen)
	12/14/1844	born Fannie Speridone Carpenter -2nd wife JHL Botefuhr
-	6/11/1848	Married JHL Botefhur married D.Sarah Beerman
	2/8/1850	born daugther Sarah Matilda Botefuhr born
-	8/1/1850	JHL Botefuhr living in Hoboken, New Jersey in
	CENSUS	house hold with wife and daugher
	4/6/1852	born Mary Catherine Botefuhr (date letter 1856?)buried Greenwood
	7 - 7 - 2 - 2
	Between
	1852-1854	JHL Botefuhr ship wrecked off African coast and life spared by natives who had never seen a white man or	and believed him to be a new god. Forced to become member trobe, took a wife- blackened his body
16	between 56-59?	with berry juice-to disguise himself as a native-boarded a vessel and when at sea made himself known.
17	2/28/1854	born John Jacob Botefuhr (letter as 1858)
18	7/10/1854	died John Jacob Botefuhrburied Greenwood Cemetery (son JHL Botefuhr)
19	12/22/1854	Voluisia County, Florida created out of Orange
20	12/19/1856	born daughter Henrietta Botefuhr
21	1858	Botefuhr in Swatow, China ??
		JHL Botefuhr still living in Hoboken living with wife,
	6/1/1860	and daughters Sarah, Mary C, and Henrietta (on same page is Kellett family
22	CENSUS	and Charles Bernard)

Timeline for family of JHL Botefuhr  Beerman Family, &  2nd wife daughter of Ora Carpenter  (Menorcan Descendant)  38/27/1860 died Mary Catherine Botefuhr buried Greenwood Cemetery (daughter JHL Botefuhr)  41/1861 Georgia & Florida Seceded from US  41/1861 Civil War Declared- Firing on Fort Sumter  59/24/1864 born in Swatow, China Mercy Gilman Botefuhr  70/24/1865 CIVIL WAR ENDED  The American bark Rover cleared at Swatow, China, in ballast for  Newhwang on 2 March 1867 and sailed a few days after.  70/29/3/9/1867 The American bark Rover left Swatow  The American barque Rover was wrecked on Vele Rete Rocks, southern Formosa; the crew was murdered, with the exception of one Chinese crew member. Including sister-in-law Mercy Botefuhr Hunt of JHL Botefuhr  Swatow, China Botefuhr meets with Admiral Sir Henry Keppel During the afternoon of the Wednesday an old American acquaintance of former years at Whampoa, Mr. Botefuhr, came on board to solicit interference and assistance from me, which he stated he had in vain applied for to his own Admiral. Botefuhrs wife is sister to the wife fo the captain of the Rover, and although it is known that many were		1
Beerman Family, &  2		A
3 2nd wife daughter of Ora Carpenter  (Menorcan Descendant)  3 8/27/1860 died Mary Catherine Botefuhr buried Greenwood Cemetery (daughter JHL Botefuhr)  24 1/1861 Georgia & Florida Seceded from US  25 4/1861 Civil War Declared- Firing on Fort Sumter  26 9/24/1864 born in Swatow, China Mercy Gilman Botefuhr  27 4/1865 CIVIL WAR ENDED  The American bark Rover cleared at Swatow, China, in ballast for  3/2/1867 Newhwang on 2 March 1867 and sailed a few days after.  29 3/9/1867 The American bark Rover left Swatow  The American barque Rover was wrecked on Vele Rete Rocks, southern Formosa; the crew was murdered, with the exception of one Chinese crew member. Including sister-in-law Mercy Botefuhr  40 3/13/1867 Hunt of JHL Botefuhr  Swatow, China Botefuhr meets with Admiral Sir Henry Keppel During the afternoon of the Wednesday an old American acquaintance of former years at Whampoa, Mr. Botefuhr, came on board to solicit interference and assistance from me, which he stated he had in vain applied for to his own Admiral.  Botefuhrs wife is sister to the wife fo the captain of the Rover, and although it is known that many were killed there is yet no positive proof that the captain and his wife were slain. My poor friend clung to the hope that the savages would not have the hear to murder one so fair as his sister-in-law, who was so young, and, as he described hwe, "only a few months married, comely to look on, and of nice proportions." It is difficult for me to interfer without causing jealousy on the part of the United States  31 5/29/1867 Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  32 11/12/1867 Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  33 7/5/1869 Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell  JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster , searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a		-	Timeline for family of JHL Botefuhr
2nd wife daughter of Ora Carpenter (Menorcan Descendant)  3/27/1860  3/27/1860  3/27/1860  4/1861  5/28	_	-	Beerman Family, &
S   Commonstrate   Commonstrate		-	•
3/27/1860   died Mary Catherine Botefuhr buried Greenwood Cemetery (daughter JHL Botefuhr)			·
1/1861   Georgia & Florida Seceded from US		0.127.14.050
25   4/1861   Civil War Declared- Firing on Fort Sumter	_
26   9/24/1864   born in Swatow, China Mercy Gilman Botefuhr
27   4/1865   CIVIL WAR ENDED	_
The American bark Rover cleared at Swatow, China, in ballast for Newhwang on 2 March 1867 and sailed a few days after.  The American bark Rover left Swatow The American barque Rover was wrecked on Vele Rete Rocks, southern Formosa; the crew was murdered, with the exception of one Chinese crew member. Including sister-in-law Mercy Botefuhr Hunt of JHL Botefuhr  Swatow, China Botefuhr meets with Admiral Sir Henry Keppel During the afternoon of the Wednesday an old American acquaintance of former years at Whampoa, Mr. Botefuhr, came on board to solicit interference and assistance from me, which he stated he had in vain applied for to his own Admiral. Botefuhrs wife is sister to the wife fo the captain of the Rover, and although it is known that many were killed there is yet no positive proof that the captain and his wife were slain. My poor friend clung to the hope that the savages would not have the hear to murder one so fair as his sister-in-law, who was so young, and, as he described hwe, "only a few months married, comely to look on, and of nice proportions." It is difficult for me to interfer without causing jealousy on the part of the United States Admiral. Mr, friend, Botefuhr, has already drawn comparisons not complimentary to his countryman. Botefuhr in Amoy(China) at Consulate, testifies remains of his sister in-law  Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell  JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster , searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a	_
28 3/2/1867 Newhwang on 2 March 1867 and sailed a few days after.  29 3/9/1867 The American bark Rover left Swatow  The American barque Rover was wrecked on Vele Rete Rocks, southern Formosa; the crew was murdered, with the exception of one Chinese crew member. Including sister-in-law Mercy Botefuhr Hunt of JHL Botefuhr  Swatow, China Botefuhr meets with Admiral Sir Henry Keppel During the afternoon of the Wednesday an old American acquaintance of former years at Whampoa, Mr. Botefuhr, came on board to solicit interference and assistance from me, which he stated he had in vain applied for to his own Admiral. Botefuhrs wife is sister to the wife fo the captain of the Rover, and although it is known that many were killed there is yet no positive proof that the captain and his wife were slain. My poor friend clung to the hope that the savages would not have the hear to murder one so fair as his sister-in-law, who was so young, and, as he described hwe, "only a few months married, comely to look on, and of nice proportions." It is difficult for me to interfer without causing jealousy on the part of the United States Admiral. Mr, friend, Botefuhr, has already drawn comparisons not complimentary to his countryman.  Botefuhr in Amoy(China) at Consulate, testifies remains of his sister in-law  Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  31 1/12/1867 Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell  JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster , searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a	27	4/1865
The American bark Rover left Swatow  The American bark Rover left Swatow  The American barque Rover was wrecked on Vele Rete Rocks, southern Formosa; the crew was murdered, with the exception of one Chinese crew member. Including sister-in-law Mercy Botefuhr Hunt of JHL Botefuhr  Swatow, China Botefuhr meets with Admiral Sir Henry Keppel During the afternoon of the Wednesday an old American acquaintance of former years at Whampoa, Mr. Botefuhr, came on board to solicit interference and assistance from me, which he stated he had in vain applied for to his own Admiral.  Botefuhrs wife is sister to the wife fo the captain of the Rover, and although it is known that many were killed there is yet no positive proof that the captain and his wife were slain. My poor friend clung to the hope that the savages would not have the hear to murder one so fair as his sister-in-law, who was so young, and, as he described hwe, "only a few months married, comely to look on, and of nice proportions." It is difficult for me to interfer without causing jealousy on the part of the United States  31 5/29/1867 Admiral. Mr, friend, Botefuhr, has already drawn comparisons not complimentary to his countryman.  Botefuhr in Amoy(China) at Consulate, testifies remains of his sister in-law  Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell  JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster , searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a		l
The American barque Rover was wrecked on Vele Rete Rocks, southern Formosa; the crew was murdered, with the exception of one Chinese crew member. Including sister-in-law Mercy Botefuhr Hunt of JHL Botefuhr  Swatow, China Botefuhr meets with Admiral Sir Henry Keppel During the afternoon of the Wednesday an old American acquaintance of former years at Whampoa, Mr. Botefuhr, came on board to solicit interference and assistance from me, which he stated he had in vain applied for to his own Admiral. Botefuhrs wife is sister to the wife fo the captain of the Rover, and although it is known that many were killed there is yet no positive proof that the captain and his wife were slain. My poor friend clung to the hope that the savages would not have the hear to murder one so fair as his sister-in-law, who was so young, and, as he described hwe, "only a few months married, comely to look on, and of nice proportions." It is difficult for me to interfer without causing jealousy on the part of the United States  31 5/29/1867 Admiral. Mr, friend, Botefuhr, has already drawn comparisons not complimentary to his countryman. Botefuhr in Amoy(China) at Consulate, testifies remains of his sister in-law  Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  32 11/12/1867 Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell  JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster , searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a	_		· murdered, with the exception of one Chinese crew member. Including sister-in-law Mercy Botefuhr  Hunt of JHL Botefuhr  Swatow, China Botefuhr meets with Admiral Sir Henry Keppel During the afternoon of the Wednesday an old American acquaintance of former years at Whampoa, Mr. Botefuhr, came on board to solicit interference and assistance from me, which he stated he had in vain applied for to his own Admiral. Botefuhrs wife is sister to the wife fo the captain of the Rover, and although it is known that many were killed there is yet no positive proof that the captain and his wife were slain. My poor friend clung to the hope that the savages would not have the hear to murder one so fair as his sister-in-law, who was so young, and, as he described hwe, "only a few months married, comely to look on, and of nice proportions." It is difficult for me to interfer without causing jealousy on the part of the United States  Admiral. Mr, friend, Botefuhr, has already drawn comparisons not complimentary to his countryman. Botefuhr in Amoy(China) at Consulate, testifies remains of his sister in-law  Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell  JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster , searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a	29	3/9/1867
Swatow, China Botefuhr meets with Admiral Sir Henry Keppel During the afternoon of the Wednesday an old American acquaintance of former years at Whampoa, Mr. Botefuhr, came on board to solicit interference and assistance from me, which he stated he had in vain applied for to his own Admiral. Botefuhrs wife is sister to the wife fo the captain of the Rover, and although it is known that many were killed there is yet no positive proof that the captain and his wife were slain. My poor friend clung to the hope that the savages would not have the hear to murder one so fair as his sister-in-law, who was so young, and, as he described hwe, "only a few months married, comely to look on, and of nice proportions." It is difficult for me to interfer without causing jealousy on the part of the United States  Admiral. Mr, friend, Botefuhr, has already drawn comparisons not complimentary to his countryman.  Botefuhr in Amoy(China) at Consulate, testifies remains of his sister in-law  Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell  JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster , searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a			·
Swatow, China Botefuhr meets with Admiral Sir Henry Keppel During the afternoon of the Wednesday an old American acquaintance of former years at Whampoa, Mr. Botefuhr, came on board to solicit interference and assistance from me, which he stated he had in vain applied for to his own Admiral. Botefuhrs wife is sister to the wife fo the captain of the Rover, and although it is known that many were killed there is yet no positive proof that the captain and his wife were slain. My poor friend clung to the hope that the savages would not have the hear to murder one so fair as his sister-in-law, who was so young, and, as he described hwe, "only a few months married, comely to look on, and of nice proportions." It is difficult for me to interfer without causing jealousy on the part of the United States Admiral. Mr, friend, Botefuhr, has already drawn comparisons not complimentary to his countryman. Botefuhr in Amoy(China) at Consulate, testifies remains of his sister in-law  32 11/12/1867 Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  33 7/5/1869 Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell  JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster , searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a
an old American acquaintance of former years at Whampoa, Mr. Botefuhr, came on board to solicit interference and assistance from me, which he stated he had in vain applied for to his own Admiral. Botefuhrs wife is sister to the wife fo the captain of the Rover, and although it is known that many were killed there is yet no positive proof that the captain and his wife were slain. My poor friend clung to the hope that the savages would not have the hear to murder one so fair as his sister-in-law, who was so young, and, as he described hwe, "only a few months married, comely to look on, and of nice proportions." It is difficult for me to interfer without causing jealousy on the part of the United States Admiral. Mr, friend, Botefuhr, has already drawn comparisons not complimentary to his countryman. Botefuhr in Amoy(China) at Consulate, testifies remains of his sister in-law  Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell  JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster , searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a	30	3/13/1867	Hunt of JHL Botefuhr an old American acquaintance of former years at Whampoa, Mr. Botefuhr, came on board to solicit interference and assistance from me, which he stated he had in vain applied for to his own Admiral. Botefuhrs wife is sister to the wife fo the captain of the Rover, and although it is known that many were killed there is yet no positive proof that the captain and his wife were slain. My poor friend clung to the hope that the savages would not have the hear to murder one so fair as his sister-in-law, who was so young, and, as he described hwe, "only a few months married, comely to look on, and of nice proportions." It is difficult for me to interfer without causing jealousy on the part of the United States Admiral. Mr, friend, Botefuhr, has already drawn comparisons not complimentary to his countryman. Botefuhr in Amoy(China) at Consulate, testifies remains of his sister in-law  Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell  JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster , searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a interference and assistance from me, which he stated he had in vain applied for to his own Admiral.  Botefuhrs wife is sister to the wife fo the captain of the Rover, and although it is known that many were killed there is yet no positive proof that the captain and his wife were slain. My poor friend clung to the hope that the savages would not have the hear to murder one so fair as his sister-in-law, who was so young, and, as he described hwe, "only a few months married, comely to look on, and of nice proportions." It is difficult for me to interfer without causing jealousy on the part of the United States  Admiral. Mr, friend, Botefuhr, has already drawn comparisons not complimentary to his countryman.  Botefuhr in Amoy(China) at Consulate, testifies remains of his sister in-law  Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell  JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster, searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a			Swatow, China Botefuhr meets with Admiral Sir Henry Keppel During the afternoon of the Wednesday
Botefuhrs wife is sister to the wife fo the captain of the Rover, and although it is known that many were killed there is yet no positive proof that the captain and his wife were slain. My poor friend clung to the hope that the savages would not have the hear to murder one so fair as his sister-in-law, who was so young, and, as he described hwe, "only a few months married, comely to look on, and of nice proportions." It is difficult for me to interfer without causing jealousy on the part of the United States  Admiral. Mr, friend, Botefuhr, has already drawn comparisons not complimentary to his countryman.  Botefuhr in Amoy(China) at Consulate, testifies remains of his sister in-law  Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell  JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster, searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a			an old American acquaintance of former years at Whampoa, Mr. Botefuhr, came on board to solicit killed there is yet no positive proof that the captain and his wife were slain. My poor friend clung to the hope that the savages would not have the hear to murder one so fair as his sister-in-law, who was so young, and, as he described hwe, "only a few months married, comely to look on, and of nice proportions." It is difficult for me to interfer without causing jealousy on the part of the United States  Admiral. Mr, friend, Botefuhr, has already drawn comparisons not complimentary to his countryman.  Botefuhr in Amoy(China) at Consulate, testifies remains of his sister in-law  Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell  JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster, searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a			interference and assistance from me, which he stated he had in vain applied for to his own Admiral.
hope that the savages would not have the hear to murder one so fair as his sister-in-law, who was so young, and, as he described hwe, "only a few months married, comely to look on, and of nice proportions." It is difficult for me to interfer without causing jealousy on the part of the United States Admiral. Mr, friend, Botefuhr, has already drawn comparisons not complimentary to his countryman.  Botefuhr in Amoy(China) at Consulate, testifies remains of his sister in-law Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster, searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a			Botefuhrs wife is sister to the wife fo the captain of the Rover, and although it is known that many were young, and, as he described hwe, "only a few months married, comely to look on, and of nice proportions." It is difficult for me to interfer without causing jealousy on the part of the United States Admiral. Mr, friend, Botefuhr, has already drawn comparisons not complimentary to his countryman.  Botefuhr in Amoy(China) at Consulate, testifies remains of his sister in-law  Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell  JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster, searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a			killed there is yet no positive proof that the captain and his wife were slain. My poor friend clung to the proportions." It is difficult for me to interfer without causing jealousy on the part of the United States 31 5/29/1867 Admiral. Mr, friend, Botefuhr, has already drawn comparisons not complimentary to his countryman.  Botefuhr in Amoy(China) at Consulate, testifies remains of his sister in-law  Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell  JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster , searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a			hope that the savages would not have the hear to murder one so fair as his sister-in-law, who was so
31 5/29/1867 Admiral. Mr, friend, Botefuhr, has already drawn comparisons not complimentary to his countryman.  Botefuhr in Amoy(China) at Consulate, testifies remains of his sister in-law  Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell  JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster, searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a			young, and, as he described hwe, "only a few months married, comely to look on, and of nice
Botefuhr in Amoy(China) at Consulate, testifies remains of his sister in-law Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell  JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster , searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a			proportions." It is difficult for me to interfer without causing jealousy on the part of the United States
32 11/12/1867 Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)  33 7/5/1869 Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell  JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster, searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a	31	5/29/1867	Admiral. Mr, friend, Botefuhr, has already drawn comparisons not complimentary to his countryman.
33 7/5/1869  Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell  JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster , searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a			Botefuhr in Amoy(China) at Consulate, testifies remains of his sister in-law
JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster, searched Florida coast-found spot on Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a	32	11/12/1867	Mercy G. (Bearnom) Hunt (Amoy is now known as Xiamen in Fujian Province)
Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a	33	7/5/1869	Botefuhr sails into New York and brings family back to New York on ship Samuel Russell
			JHL headed to Florida with Lord Tallyrand and Lord Webster, searched Florida coast-found spot on
34 1869 shipment of oranges from there to Europe			Halifax River. They visited with Doughlass Dummett at his grove on Merritt's Island and they took a
	34	1869	shipment of oranges from there to Europe

	A	В
1		Timeline for family of JHL Botefuhr
2		Beerman Family, &
3		2nd wife daughter of Ora Carpenter
4		·
5		(Menorcan Descendant)
		JHL Botefuhr purchased Lot2, Sec 16, Tp 15 e. Range 33 E. (74 acres) fronted on the Halifax River across from Bethune Point, and was bordered by the ocean on the west.
35		Today Botefuhr Avenue cuts the tract in half.
		JHL Botefuhr and family still living in Hoboken, New Jersey with wife and 7/15/1870	daughters Sarah, Henrietta & Mercy (Neighbors are father-in-law John Beerman and Lucy)also-Charles
_	CENSUS	Barnard & Mary
37	1870??	JHL Botefhur returns in a schooner loaded with lumber, from a torn down hotel.
		32x32 home built - 2 stories, double verandas front and back-the kitchen was separate in back. The 1870	Bostrom brothers helped build the home. It was never painted.
39	1871	Tax rolls show valuation of lot 2, the Botefuhr property was $400.00
		Family comes from New York by Schooner-brought 6 months supply of food, horses, a dog, a cat, a few monkeys and several birds. Also hay & grain for stock. Schooner could not 40	1871	get past Live Oak Point.
		Swift Brothers rent their lighter to JHL Botefhur to bring possessions up river, Botefuhr paid them
41	1871	$40.00 per day for two days. ($1,453.00 in 2016 dollars)
		Lot 3 to South of Botefuhr (69 acres) purchased by JHL Botefuhr's brother in law-Charles Barnard (home
42	1871	eventually at 2032 S. Peninsula Drive (The 600 feet on the river was fronted by a white stone wall)
	s /s / + 0 = 0	Henrietta Botefuhr, age 17 sails on Clara Merick to live with her Uncle and Aunt Mary Beerman Bernard
	6/6/1873	in Brookly, New York. (actually Hoboken, New Jersey)
44	6/7/1873	JHL Botefuhr getting boat ready to take Mr. Markus over to Daytona
	6 /0 /4 073	Women are alone in household-get vist from Rev J. Smith, Charles Jackson, W. Jackson, Mr. Allen, Mr.
	6/8/1873	Noble and Mrs. Johnson -visted for about 1 hour
46	6/9/1873	Botefuhr women only get two meals a day when JHL is away. JHL gets back home JHL in bad humor-bought potatoes and 40 turtle eggs-Sarah finishes sewing and receives 2.00 in s / 1 0 / 1 0 - 0	payment-discusses the fact that Mr. Brown replaced $5.00 that Henrietta had given her father that was
47	6/10/1873	to pay her way to New York

	A	В
1		Timeline for family of JHL Botefuhr
2		Beerman Family, &
3		2nd wife daughter of Ora Carpenter
4		·
5		(Menorcan Descendant)
40	C /4 4 /4 072	25th Wedding Anniversay JHL Botefuhr and wife & Sara (Sara mentions ill health and fact that leg is not
	6/11/1873	looking well)
	6/12/1873	JHL Botefuhr and Jackson turned over turtle-butchered it, and got eggs
50	11/25/1874	died D. Sarah Beerman-1st wife JHL Botefuhr -Hoboken
1		Sarah Botefuhr marries Peter B. Dobbins (parents were wheat farmers from Whiting, Indiana (I have
	1/23/1874	marriage date 1872?)
52	4/1/1877	Married-JHL Botefuhr & Fannie Carpenter
		Henrietta and Mercy living in Hoboken, New York with Aunt Mary Bernard-
	2/3/1878	Letter by JHL to nephew JH Botefuhr
	9/11/1879	born Daniel Carpenter Botefuhr to JHL & Fannie Carpenter Botefuhr
55	5/18/1880	born Hannah Antonia Botefuhr to JHL & Fannie Carpenter Botefuhr
	6/12/1880
56	CENSUS	JHL Botefuhr living with second wife Fannie S Carpenter Volusia County-3rd District
		Vera Cruz leaves New York and is hit by hurricane, wrecks, and bodies come on shore at Halifax Beach-
		Monday 8/30/1880
		General Torbert's body was placed in a cask and buried Wednesday, September 1, 1880, on the grounds
57	8/25/1880	of J.H. Botefuhr, under palmetto tree. Newspaper Article 9/4/1880
		General Torbert's body disinterred to New York-late in state until 10/10/1880, transported to to New
58	9/30/1880	Jersey, then Phildaelphia, then interred in Milford, Deleware
59	1/8/1881	Letter from JHL Botefuhr to nephew J.H.Botefuhr in Toledo, Ohio
60	11/12/1882	JHL receives letter from niece Laura Botefuhr
61	11/15/1883	married Henrietta Botefuhr to James W. Kellett
		Niece Laura gets back from visit to Halifax to hometown Fort Smith, Arkansas
62	1/22/1884	her future husband Schulte meets them at train.
		Mary A. Barnard-JHL's widowed sister-in-law sells property of Charles Bernard to niece of JHL Botefuhr,
63	1884	Laura L. Schulte
	6/30/1885	JHL Botefuhr living in Daytona Beach with 2nd wife Fannie Carpenter and
64	CENSUS	3 year old daugther daughter Hannah Antonia

	А	В
1		Timeline for family of JHL Botefuhr
2		Beerman Family, &
3		••
4		2nd wife daughter of Ora Carpenter
5		(Menorcan Descendant)
65	5/27/1886	born Doris Fannie Botefuhr to JHL & Fannie Carpenter Botefuhr part of Lot 2, was platted as Town-Land of the Sun-
66	1887	Lots on the Beach 1. Peck & Foster 2. Fannie Coe 3. R.S. Maley etc
-	1888	Henrietta Botefuhr writes letter- states she is boarding in Hoboken with Aunt Mary Bernard
	5/19/1893	died mother of Fannie Carpenter Botefuhr (Antonia Hannah Masters Carpenter)
	5/26/1896	died Henrietta Botefuhr Kellett (daughther JHL Botefuhr)
	6/12/1900	JHL Botefuhr & second wife living in Precinct 8, Volusia County, Florida
70	CENSUS	also are daughters Hannah & Doris
71	3/19/1902	died father of Fannie Carpenter Botefuhr (Ora Carpenter)
72	1/4/1904	died JHL Botefuhr buried Pinewood Cemetery
73	after 1904	home of JHL Botefuhr burned
74	1/29/1904	married Hannah Antonia Botefuhr married (1)Benjamin Franklin Clifton at courthouse
75	2/25/1904	married Doris Fannie Botefuhr to Harry Brooks
76	9/4/1909	died 2nd wife of JHL Botefuhr, Fannie S. Carpenter Botefuhr in Osteen Cemetery
77	3/26/1905	Henry Botefuhr Schulte wintered in Florida (letter)
78	3/31/1905	Henry Botefuhr Schulte went into real estate business (letter)
79	6/17/1906	married Hannah Antonia Botefuhr to (2)William J. Murray
80	3/21/1905	Harrison Garfield Rhodes published book - Flight to Eden (loosely based JHL Botefuhr's life)
81	5/20/1908	married Doris Fannie Botefuhr to William Joseph Cohen
82	8/20/1912	married Hannah Antonia Botefur married (3)Elisha Hatch
83	abt 1927	married Hannah Antonia Botefuhr married (4) Jasper Allman